

Camp Dragonfly

"A camp for trans+ & gender creative children and their siblings/friends".

Camp Dragonfly is an opportunity for trans+ and gender creative children (and their siblings and friends!) to gather in a space of creativity, growth, and connection. Our goal at Camp Dragonfly is to provide spaces for trans+ and gender creative children, siblings, friends, and caregivers who have a shared lived experience to join each other in creativity, celebration, and connection.

Camp Dragonfly is a two day summer day camp that runs in Edmonton, Alberta. Camp is open to kids who are trans+, Two-Spirit, genderqueer, non-binary, gender creative, agender, gender diverse, and all gender minorities, along with their siblings and friends who are between the ages of 6-13. Join us for a day and a half of arts and crafts, dance, music, sports, and more.

Our time together will be focused on finding and celebrating our connection and creativity! Camp Dragonfly is a program provided by Rainbow Connection Edmonton. It is a non-profit organization that is focused on joining creative souls in spaces for growth, healing & connection. We embrace all identities and experiences, by hosting events that encourage the exploration of identity. Rainbow Connection and Camp Dragonfly are co-sponsored by SSUC, Spiritual Seekers United in Community, the first affirming church in Edmonton. SSUC has been welcoming and supporting the LGBTQ2S+ community since 1999.

Camp fyrefly

Camp fyrefly is an educational, social, and personal leadership retreat for queer and trans youth. It focuses on building and nurturing their leadership skills and personal resiliency in an effort to help them learn how to make significant contributions to their own lives and to their schools, home/group-home environments, and communities. Camp is designed for queer and trans youth between the ages of 14 and 24.

Participating in Camp fyrefly is a powerful and unique experience. Campers participate in activities that challenge youth to explore their identity, build resilience, and enhance self- and social-esteem. Camp is designed to help motivate participants to become leaders in their own communities, thereby passing on their leadership skills to the youth that come after them.
