A BYLAW OF THE CITY OF LEDUC IN THE PROVINCE OF ALBERTA, TO REGULATE THE USE OF HIGHWAYS UNDER THE DIRECTION, CONTROL AND MANAGEMENT OF THE CITY AND THE PARKING OF VEHICLES ON PRIVATE PROPERTY

Whereas, pursuant to section 13 of the Traffic Safety Act, R.S.A. 2000, c T-6, a Council may pass bylaws with respect to highways under its direction, control and management governing: the use of highways; the parking of vehicles; the establishment and use of parking places that are for the exclusive use of persons with disabilities; access to highways from private land; fees charged with respect to the parking of vehicles; the turning of vehicles at intersections; the licensing of bicycles; the encumbering of highways; the impounding and removal of vehicles, bicycles, skateboards and similar devices; parades and processions; closing or restricting the use of a highway; the issuing of tags, tickets or other documents; the placing of tags, tickets or other documents on vehicles; the marking of tires on vehicles for the purpose of enforcing parking bylaws; the employing of or engaging the services of persons to enforce bylaws made with respect to the parking of vehicles; classifying motor vehicles and other vehicles and pedestrians for any purposes involving the use of streets, lanes and other public places; defining and prohibiting objectionable noise from vehicles; permitting the issuance of permits for temporary use of a highway; restricting the use of specific traffic lanes to vehicles carrying a prescribed number of passengers or to specific vehicles or classes of vehicles; designating routes for vehicles or classes of vehicles; restricting the weight of vehicles or of vehicles and the goods being carried by the vehicles; and prescribing or otherwise providing for penalties with respect to the contravention of this bylaw;

And Whereas, pursuant to section 14 of the Traffic Safety Act a Council may pass bylaws with respect to privately owned property that is located within the municipality to which vehicles driven by members of the public generally have access, governing: parking on the property without the permission or authorization of the owner of the property or a person having possession or control of the property; the parking of vehicles in manufactured home communities; and the establishment and use of parking places that are for the exclusive use of persons with disabilities. Also with respect to private property that is located within the municipality to which vehicles driven by members of the public generally do not have access but on which the owner of the property or a person having possession or control of the property may park or otherwise keep vehicles, prohibiting the parking of vehicles on that property without the permission or authorization of that person or the parking of vehicles so that the access to that property is denied or otherwise restricted.

Also with respect to a vehicle parked or driven in contravention of this bylaw governing the issuing of tags or tickets or other documents and the placing of tags, tickets or other documents on vehicles;

And Whereas, pursuant to section 7(i) of the Municipal Government Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. M-26 a council may pass bylaws for municipal purposes respecting the enforcement of bylaws made under any enactment, including: the creation of offences; for each offence, imposing a fine not exceeding $10 000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both; providing for the imposition of a penalty for an offence that is in addition to a fine or imprisonment so long as the penalty relates to a fee, cost, rate, toll or charge that is associated with the conduct that gives rise to the offence; providing that a specified penalty prescribed under section 44 of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act is reduced by a specified amount if the penalty is paid within a specified time; providing for imprisonment for not more than one year for non-payment of a fine or penalty; providing that a person who contravenes a bylaw may pay an amount established by bylaw and if the amount is paid, the person will not be prosecuted for the contravention; providing for inspections to determine if bylaws are being complied with; and remedying contraventions of bylaws.

Leduc City Council enacts:

PART I - PURPOSE, DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

PURPOSE

1. The purpose of this bylaw is to regulate the use of highways under the direction, control and management of the City and the parking of vehicles on private property.

PART V - ENFORCEMENT

OFFENCE

60. A person who contravenes this bylaw is guilty of an offence.

CONTINUING OFFENCE

61. In the case of an offence that is of a continuing nature, a contravention constitutes a separate offence in respect of each day, or part of a day, on which it continues and a person guilty of such an offence is liable to a fine in an amount not less than that established in this bylaw for each such day.

OWNER LIABLE

62. (1) In this section "owner" includes any person registered as an owner at the Motor Vehicle Registry.
- (2) If a vehicle is involved in an offence under this bylaw, the owner of that vehicle is guilty of that offence.
- (3) This section does not apply if the owner of the vehicle satisfies the court that, at the time that the vehicle was involved in the offence:
- (a) the owner of the vehicle was not driving or did not park the vehicle, and
 - (b) no other person was driving or parked the vehicle with the owner's expressed or implied consent;
- (4) An owner who is guilty of an offence by operation of this section is not liable to imprisonment in respect of that offence or in respect of a default of a fine imposed in respect of that offence.

VICARIOUS LIABILITY

63. For the purposes of this bylaw, an act or omission by an employee or agent of a person is deemed also to be an act or omission of the person if the act or omission occurred in the course of the employee's employment with the person, or in the course of the agent exercising the powers of or performing duties on behalf of the person under their agency relationship.

CORPORATIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS

64. (1) When a corporation commits an offence under this bylaw, every principal, director, manager, employee or agent of the corporation who authorized the act or omission that constitutes the
