OFFENCE

12. Anyone who fails to comply with the provisions of this Bylaw is guilty of an offence and is liable to the penalties imposed under this Bylaw.
13. In the case of an offense that is of a continuing nature, a contravention constitutes a separate offence in respect to each day or part of a day, on which it continues and a person guilty of such an offence is liable to a fine in an amount not less than that established by this bylaw for each such day.

PENALTIES

14. A person who is guilty of an offence is liable to a fine in an amount not less than that established in this Part, and not exceeding $2,500.00, and to imprisonment for not more than six months for non-payment of a fine.

Without restricting the generality of the foregoing the specified fine amounts are established for use on Municipal Bylaw Tickets or on Violation Tickets if a voluntary payment option is offered:

- a) $ 500.00 for a first offence;
- b) $ 1,000.00 for a second offence, and
- c) $ 2,500.00 for a third or subsequent offence.

ENFORCEMENT

15. If a Peace Officer believes that an offence has been committed under this bylaw, he may issue:
 - a) a Municipal Bylaw Ticket; or
 - b) a summons under the Provincial Offences Procedures Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. P-34 as amended, by means of a Violation Ticket; in respect of the alleged offence.

16. If a Violation Ticket is issued in respect to an offence, the Violation Ticket may:
 - a) specify the fine amount established under this bylaw for the offence; or
 - b) require a person to appear in court without the alternative of making a voluntary payment.

Code 04/03

17. A person who commits an offence may:
- a) if a Municipal Bylaw Ticket is issued in respect of the offence; or
 - b) if a Violation Ticket is issued in respect of the offence, and if the Violation Ticket specifies the fine amount established by this bylaw for the offence;
- make a voluntary payment equal to the fine specified.
18. Voluntary payment of a fine levied under a Municipal Bylaw Ticket or a Violation Ticket shall be deemed to be a conviction of the offence specified.
19. The City is not required to enforce this Bylaw. In deciding whether to enforce this Bylaw the City may take into account any practical concerns regarding enforcement including the funds available under the municipal budget and available personnel resources.

SEVERABILITY

20. If at any time any provision of this Bylaw is declared or held to be illegal, invalid or ultra vires, in whole or in part, then that provision shall not apply and the remainder of this Bylaw shall continue in full force and effect and shall be construed as if it had been enacted without the illegal, invalid or ultra vires provision.

REPEAL

21. That Bylaw No. 248-92 and all subsequent amendments or bylaws pertaining to smoking in City owned, leased, operated buildings and the health of inhabitants in City owned, leased operated or occupied buildings be repealed.

CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENT

22. That Bylaw No. 405-97, the Taxi and Livery Bylaw, be amended by deleting paragraph 10 (d) (v) in its entirety and replacing it with the following:
- "v) pursuant to Bylaw No. 581-2004, as amended from time to time, smoke or allow any person to smoke in a livery vehicle,"
